The Accompanying rate includes admission to the exhibition sessions, the Gala Dinner on Wednesday, and all social events.

All rates include the full-day excursion to El Teide on Friday and the free transport from/to TFN airport for Miami Air Europa flights.

Registration receipts will be available at the conference.

Cancellations before December 23, 2009 will be refunded in full. Cancellations after that date will be assessed a 20% cancellation fee. No refunds can be made after January 16, 2010.

Privacy notice: We collect personal information for conference registration and IFCA membership purposes (you may elect not to be included on the list of participants, which is distributed to the conference attendees). It is our policy not to use this information for any other purposes and not to release the information to organizations or individuals other than those involved in organizing the conference. However, we will send address labels to the publisher for the purpose of shipping the final proceedings. If you do not wish your address information to be sent to the publisher, we can arrange for special handling. There is an additional charge for this service, and it will result in a delay in the delivery of your copy of the proceedings.
